INFORMATION:

On April 1, 2011 at approximately 12:27 am Santa Cruz Police Department officers were dispatched to a report of shots fired in the area of Barson Street and Campbell Street. Officers did an exhaustive search of the area for possible suspects and victims. There was no initial information on possible suspects or victims.

Approximately twenty minutes later, the victim contacted police. The victim was driving on Barson Street approaching Campbell Street when he passed a red Honda or Nissan sedan. Gunshots came from the suspect vehicle. The victim continued driving away from the suspect vehicle. The suspect vehicle turned northbound on Campbell Street.

The suspect who fired the gun was described as a Hispanic male adult in his twenties with a thick mustache wearing a red hat and white t-shirt. The driver of the suspect vehicle was described as a Hispanic male adult wearing a black sweatshirt. There was a third suspect in the vehicle. No description of the third suspect is available at this time.

Officers canvassed the area for the suspects with the updated information. The suspects or suspect vehicle were not located. The victim did not sustain any injuries during the attack. Detectives are working with the victim to get leads on possible suspects. Evidence was collected.
