LOCATION: 200 Block California Avenue

TOPIC: Shooting Investigation

CASE NUMBER: 11S-04752

SUSPECTS:

1. Light Skin Male (Unknown Race) Approx 6'00" – 180 lbs, Dark Windbreaker Jacket, Light Colored Pants

INFORMATION:

On June 12, 2011, the Santa Cruz Police Department investigated a report of a shooting in the 200 block of California Avenue. Officers located the victim Jared Floodman who sustained a gunshot to the abdomen.

Patrol officers canvassed the neighborhood and Detectives worked throughout the night to process the crime scene and develop leads. The suspect fled the scene and is still at large. At this point in the investigation, there are few details and no known motive for the shooting. Detectives have been unable to interview victim Floodman as he underwent surgery and is still in Intensive Care. Air ambulances were unavailable to transport Mr. Floodman to a trauma center and he was treated locally at Dominican Hospital.

Detectives are attempting to track Mr. Floodman's activities prior to the shooting and are seeking the public's help from anyone who may have been with him earlier in the evening. The victim's photo is being released in hopes of anyone recognizing him and calling with information about his activities earlier in the evening. Anyone with information is encouraged to call the Santa Cruz Police Department Investigations unit at (831) 420-5820.

The suspect was last seen running from the scene southbound on Walk Circle. Anyone who may have seen the suspect prior to the attack, or as he fled the attack is encouraged to contact the Santa Cruz Police Department Investigations Unit.
