Used Paint Recycling Program

Participating Retail Stores in the City of Santa Cruz:

Kelly Moore, 1001 Ocean Street—427-0211

Sherwin-Williams Paint Store, 408 Front Street—423-3452

GreenSpace, 719 Swift Street—423-7200

When you are ready to recycle paint, call ahead to learn store hours and confirm that the store has space to accept your unwanted paint.

Household Hazardous Waste Drop-off site:

Resource Recovery Facility, 605 Dimeo Lane (Saturdays Only 7:30 - 3:30)

Paint Care accepts latex and oil-based paint, primers, stains, sealers and varnish. The program cannot accept aerosols, solvents and products made for industrial use.

Note: California’s paint stewardship program began in 2012. The paint recycling process begins when you purchase a new can of paint. Each can sold in California has a small fee which is used to pay for the cost of recycling any unused paint. To learn more visit: www.paintcare.org
