To maintain the high standards of the fair, we look to showcase original handmade fine art with exceptional craftsmanship in a variety of mediums.

1. All artwork exhibited must be original art created and hand-produced by the applying artist. No production work or re-sellers allowed. Any exhibitor found displaying/selling other items not represented in the original images supplied with the application will be required to vacate immediately with forfeiture of application fee.
2. Each application must be accompanied by four (4) prints of artwork (no exceptions) and 1 print of booth display. Prints must be representative of the work to be showcased.
3. Participants must provide their own booth, change fund, equipment, etc. There is no electricity. Chairs and tables are available for a nominal rental fee.
4. Size of booth/exhibit spaces are 10' x 10' with at least 1' on each side of the booth and are pre-assigned. All tables, art, etc. must be within the 10' x 10' area. We cannot guarantee that returning artists will receive the same booth assignment as previous year. Space assignments and information will be mailed mid-July.
5. All booths must be ready to open by 11:00 AM Saturday and remain open until 7:00 PM on both Saturday and Sunday evenings and begin break down after crowd has dispersed. Artists must be present at their booth though helpers are allowed. Vehicles will not be allowed onto the footprint of the fair until deemed safe by Civic Management. – this is typically ~7:20pm.
6. Decisions will be made by a selection process. Accepted artists will be notified by email. We reserve the right to make any change, veto any activity or refuse participation to groups or individuals as may be necessary to carry out the objectives of the event.
7. Applications must be postmarked no later than May 17, 2019 for initial screening. Final decisions will be made by June 14, 2019. Applications postmarked after May 17 will be reviewed on a space available basis. Those artists not accepted will be notified and booth fee will be refunded.
