Walk: Cement Ship to Potbelly Beach

Virus? What virus?
Nobody cares today
We’re so happy to see family
So relieved to be out of the house
It’s been months and months
Or has it been years?
I don’t know all the days are the same

Nikki and Julian chase around and around
Gwyneve stands like a Valkyrie in red pants
Staring out across the sea
I walk in sand with bare feet
Six bare feet apart talking about the virus
It’s all we talk about even though we don’t care

Today we don’t care
Because really sticks are the most important thing
On the beach today and rocks to throw
And sand to dig and piles of seaweed to collect

Up wind is safer
Which one of us needs to be safer?
We switch sides then we switch back

Nikki turns upside down cartwheels
Julian drags monster logs across the sand
I’m happy again…
