CURRENT OPENINGS

Council is advertising the following openings, and the appointments will be scheduled when a sufficient number of applications are received.

-Commission for the Prevention of Violence Against Women (four (4) openings, Councilmembers Beiers', Golder's, Vice Mayor Meyers', and Mayor Cummings' nominations)

This seven-member commission advises Council on programs and policies designed to prevent violent crimes against women and ensure adequate services for women. The commission also implements educational and outreach programs that would aid in the prevention of sexual assault and domestic violence against women in the city of Santa Cruz, and it makes recommendations to the City Council regarding police training in the areas of rape and domestic violence. Applicants must be City residents.

-Equal Employment Opportunity Committee (One (1) opening)

This nine-member committee comprised of seven City employees and two public members advises the City Council on equal employment opportunity matters relating to current and prospective employees of the City of Santa Cruz. It serves as a communications channel between City employees, the City Manager, and the Equal Employment Opportunity Coordinator on any such concerns; develops annual recommendations for the City Manager and the Equal Employment Opportunity Coordinator on revisions to the City's the Equal Employment Opportunity Program. Applicants must be City voters.
